

Dear Friends,

Rummage Sale Saturday June 15th
From 9 am until 2 pm
3111 Wissemann Drive

Here at the Dharma Center we are at critical mass with stuff! Lost and found stuff - left behind stuff - vases, dishes, plants, espresso machine, etc. All are unclaimed with no good place to be. It's time to do something about the clutter in our Dharma home. Thanks to reality shows, and Marie Kondo, our Buddhist teachings on non-attachment are really popular these days! How about you, feeling cluttered, need a good cleansing?

We are asking you to take this opportunity to clean your garages and closets and donate your still useful, but unused by you, stuff. Maybe ask yourself 'do I feel joy' when I look at this perfectly good waffle iron, or that painting that never found a home after your last move, or is it time to recycle?

At our last rummage sale we raised over $1,000 for the Dharma Center. With your help we can do that again! Please bring in donations before your Sangha meetings and put them in the West Lobby's chair storage area. Or drop things off on Thursday mornings between 9 am and Noon. That doesn't work for you? Then please email Linda Dekker (zendekker@gmail.com) to make drop off arrangements, or to offer your volunteer help on the 14th and/or the 15th. We need you!

We love volunteers!

P.S. Please check the lost and found. There were many jackets, water bottles and other things left behind over last the year. We will be putting unclaimed items out for the rummage sale.
